VOL. XVIII] MONDAY, MARCH 16 1818 [No. 5175.

For the prevention and cure o
BILIOUS AND MALIGNANT FEVERS
is recommended
HAHN's ANTI-BILIOUS PILLS

THIS Medicine has been attended with a degree of success highly grateful to the inventor's feelings in several parts of the West Indies and in the Southern and Middle States, &c.

The testimony of a number of persons can be adduced, who have reason to believe that a timely use of this salutary remedy has, under Providence, preserved their lives when in the most alarming circumstances.

Facts of this conclusive nature speak more in favour of a medicine than columns of pompous eulogy founded on mere assertion.

It is not indeed presumptuously proposed as an infallible cure, but the inventor has every possible reason that can result from extensive experience for believing that a dose of these Pills taken once in every two weeks during the prevalence of our bilious fevers, will prove an infallible preventive; and further, that in the earlier stages of those diseases their use will very generally succeed in restoring health, and frequently in cases esteemed desperate and beyond the power of common remedies.

The operation of these pills is perfectly mild, so as to be used with safety by persons in every situation and of every age.

They are excellently adapted to carry off superfluous bile and prevent its morbid secretions—to restore and amend the appetite—to produce a free perspiration and thereby prevent colds which are often of fatal consequences. A dose never fails to remove a cold if taken on its first appearance: they are celebrated for removing habitual costiveness—sickness at the stomach and severe head-ache—and ought to be taken by all persons on a change of climate.

They have been found remarkably efficacious in preventing and curing disorders attendant on long voyages, and should be procured and carefully preserved for use by every seaman.

Fan-Sash Making.

METAL FAN-SASHES, of various descriptions, will be made by the subscriber, at his shop, lower end of Duke street. The want of a Metal Fan-Sash Manufactory in Alexandria, has hitherto been severely felt by builders and others, who have been compelled to make use of wood, which is neither elegant nor durable. The various forms into which the metal can be shaped have given it a decided superiority, and the difference in the price is very trifling. The subscriber has been at considerable expence in procuring the necessary preparations, and relies on public enterprise for success in the undertaking.

Gentlemen in the country, by sending the dimensions of their sashes, can have them made at the same price as if in town.

Enjoy, vain man, the feast to-day,
The present hour will soon be past,
The laden board will pass away,
The worm will feed on thee at last.

Quick circle round the goblet flood,
To-day the banquet brims for thee;
To-morrow he will pledge thy blood
In dark sepulchral revelry.

Rich are the dainties that he knows,
From beauty's pale lip sips the dew—
Diets upon her velvet rose,
And eats the heart of valor through.

He shall imprint an icy kiss,
Where warmer lovers vainly sigh'd;
The secrets of that heart are his,
Where never yet observer pried.

And, if within the sage's brain
Of learning past remaineth aught,
He'll wander through and through again,
And trace the labyrinth of thought.

Yet start not, slumberer! he will creep

Original Criticism.

CHILDE HAROLD'S PILGRIMAGE: BY LORD BYRON. CANTO IV. MURRAY, LONDON. PP. 128.

(Concluded.)

Of the particular manner of lord Byron it is difficult, if not hazardous, to speak with precision, although perhaps it be more strongly characterized by the various attributes of poetical excellence than that of any of his competitors. To say that he is peculiarly grand or peculiarly passionate, were to deal out to him a meed of approbation, vulgar and indefinite. There is no model with which he can be compared, nor any test by which his mysterious merits can be analyzed. At once the spontaneous master of all the English modes of versification, and familiar with the arcana of nature and the more intricate mazes of the human heart, he produces at will the most original and powerful combinations. Like Shakespeare, he delights to trace, in tragick dignity, the darker passions of the soul and to involve the reader in the awful interest which their collision excites He disdains, however, to employ the expedients of the dramatist, and never creates an artificial interest by the embarrassment of plots, or the studied contrast of characters. Simple in his stories and unaffected in the narration of his incidents, he preserves all the unities with critical fidelity.

Unmindful of the difficulty of engaging the reader's sympathy in favour of a vicious hero, he has succeeded by the charm of his genius and the melody of his numbers in procuring interest for a piratical homicide. His daring but prosperous career in this respect reminds us of Scheller, though it must be admitted that the heroes of the latter are not so repulsive as those of the English bard, and that consequently less potent efforts are required to sustain them. We will not attempt to justify lord Byron for his rebellious disregard of publick opinion in selecting characters of the darkest moral colouring as the vehicles of sentiment and action; yet Conrad and the Gaour might be favourably opposed to a Dhu, a Resingham or a Marmion. Examples however can never justify a writer, though they may serve to palliate his offence, in a wilful aberration from the path of propriety, and we cannot dispute the correctness of those censures with which the literary moralists of the age have animadverted upon this part of his poetical conduct. Genius of the highest order is a "chartered libertine," and dispenses at pleasure with the sober regulations of mankind. Of this divine afflatus Byron certainly possesses a larger share than any living bard, and he has yielded more of delight to the imagination, with less of instruction to the judgment, than the whole brotherhood of modern song. Invention is not, we apprehend, a leading trait of his mental character; but he seems imbued with the wild interest of Shakespeare, the elegant dignity of Virgil and the burning sublimity of Homer.

The mystical peculiarities of lord Byron's character have disposed the publick to find in it a prototype for his heroes. Whatever speculation we might indulge upon this topick, or however erroneous in the general this conjecture may be, there is one feature of resemblance pretty obvious, between this poet and Harold—a wonderful inconstancy of opinion. Examples of this have been often given, and none of them is more striking than that exhibited by the "Ode to Napoleon" and the "Ode to the island of St. Helena."

That the sentiments expressed toward the ex-emperor in the latter, still however influence his lordship, the following extract will evince:

But where are now thy heroes, sprightly France,
Those sounds that swell'd the clarion-voice of fame?
Where are thy Neys—they fill'd proud Europe's glance—
Go seek, alas! their lowly grave of shame;
Nor thy imperial master falsely blame.
St. Helena's exile were thine idol still
Could he again his much lov'd land reclaim,
Soon would his slumb'ring sword achieve thy will
And through each patriot soul the pulse of triumph thrill.

In a recent edition of Byron's poetry, his American biographer stated that he had intimated a desire to visit the United States in the course of his perigrinations. This intention is clearly expressed at the conclusion of the present canto, where he indulges in melancholy reflection upon the situation of France, and alludes in an interesting manner to the political felicity of this country—

Yet is not all thy glory pass'd away,
Nor can oblivion's time thy pages dim:
O, let the muse thy fallen doom unsay,
Or hust the chant of valour's requiem.
Thine outcast chieftains o'er the Atlantick wave
May find in freedom's home an honour'd grave,
And Harold yet shall hail that blissful land,
Where fiery spirits urg'd a fearful war.
And tore from Brunswick's brow his bright coronal star.

We cannot conclude without wishing to lord Byron a prosperous wind, and presenting to him in anticipation the cordial welcome of our countrymen. He seems indeed destined by the beauty of his poetry and his chaste and vivid trace of moral and physical objects, to impart a new interest to the loveliest portions of Europe. Though the new world can boast no splendid monuments of the arts, nor inspire any of that tender sympathy with which the classical traveller regards the fallen fortunes of Greece and Italy, we fondly hope, that the picture of a young and happy people marching rapidly to greatness and glory, and the bold and varied scenery which nature here presents, will give another poetick impulse to the wayward but fascinating Harold.

ALEXANDRIA:
MONDAY, MARCH 16, 1818.

FROM OUR CORRESPONDENT AT WASHINGTON.

Saturday, March 14, 1818.

At a late hour yesterday evening the resolutions of the committee of the whole, declaring the power of congress to make roads and canals through the several states, were, after another long debate, reported to the house. The arguments and eloquence displayed on the occasion were as great as could be expected to take place upon an exhausted subject, on which it was scarcely possible to present a new idea, or even to clothe the old ones in a dress, or place them in an attitude in which they had not been before exhibited. Mr. Tucker finished the speech he had commenced the day before, in which he replied to Mr. H. Nelson with ability, and not without strokes of occasional felicity. Mr. Pindall, too, displayed considerable argumentative ingenuity. And Mr. Clay, in a very long and very interesting speech, supported not only the resolutions, but his own high reputation as an orator. It was a speech, however, of which no idea could be conveyed by detached extracts, and which would be defaced by condensation. The only satisfactory specimen of it practicable would be itself; and that I would not pretend to report in existing circumstances, since, to render it intelligible, the speeches of which it contained his refutations must have been previously reported. I apprehend, however, that the subject of the constitutional power of congress to make roads has been too clearly elucidated to allow a cloud of doubt ever again to rest upon it.

From the Baltimore Patriot of Friday.

THE MAIL ROBBERS DETECTED.

This morning, about nine o'clock, two persons of suspicious appearance called at the clothing store of Messrs. Berteau & Dumas, corner of Water and South streets, and immediately bargained for a complete suit of clothes for each; and on their bills being presented, they made a large show of money. Arrangements were made to keep them in waiting until notice was given to a magistrate and officer, by whom they were immediately arrested; upon which they conveyed a package of bills behind the counter.

They were taken before Judge Houston, of the U. S. District Court for examination, which is now going on—half past one o'clock. The amount of bills, drafts and checks found upon them is about $20,000, principally of the branches of the U. S. Bank, south of Baltimore, and great quantities of lottery tickets. None of the money recovered, belonged to the Baltimore mail—some drafts, we observed, were from Richmond.

The two fellows are known journeymen tailors, and have been employed in this city. One says his name is JOSEPH THOMPSON HARE, aged 32 years—the other, LEWIS HARE, his brother, only 20 years of age. They state they have a brother living in Lynchburg, Vir. and a brother-in-law by the name of Dorsey, at Ellicott's Mills; and both pretend they have just arrived from Washington. Pistols, a dirk, powder and balls, were found upon them. They will be committed for trial. One fellow yet remains at large.

P. S.—2 o'clock, P. M.—The prisoners have been put in irons, and conducted to prison.

Baltimore, March 12.

A man from Frederick county was fined twenty dollars by the Baltimore county court, on Saturday last, for his unmerciful treatment of one of his horses in Market-street, in this city. On the commission of this act of cruelty, he was immediately arrested and taken before the court, by whom the case was decided, after the examination of witnesses, without argument; the accused desiring that it should thus be submitted. The lenity of the court was manifested on the occasion, in consequence of his being a stranger, and professing much regret for his conduct.

Much credit is certainly due to the respectable magistrate who caused the arrest; and it is to be hoped that the law on this subject will be rigidly enforced in future, that the odious practice of treating the most noble and useful of brute animals with cruelty may be prevented. [Patriot.

BAHAMA ISLANDS.

The British brig James, Miller, arrived at Savannah on the 4th inst. in 3 days from Nassau, brings information of the opening of all the ports of the Bahama Islands on the 19th ult. to the importation of the following articles:—Tobacco, pitch, tar, turpentine, hemp, flax, masts, yards, bowsprits, staves, heading, boards, timber, shingles, or lumber of any sort, bread, biscuit, flour, peas, beans, potatoes, wheat, rice, oats, barley, or grain of any sort, in British bottoms, from any island in the West Indies, or colony on the Continent of South America belonging to an European State.

The ports were to remain open until the 21st of August next. [Times.

It affords us much satisfaction to communicate to our readers intelligence of the liberation of Captain Galles, of the Hamburg ship Ocean, together with his son and crew, captured some months since by a Tunisian corsair, on her voyage from this port to Hamburgh. Their deliverance was effected through the agency of the British Consul resident at that regency. The ship, it will be recollected, was recaptured by a British cruiser shortly after her being taken, and restored to her owners without the payment of salvage. [Ibid.

LATEST FROM ENGLAND.

By the arrival this morning of the British packet Swiftsure, Capt. Cady, in 54 days from Falmouth, (Eng.) and 8 from Bermuda, we have received Falmouth papers to the 16th of January, London papers to the 14th and the General Shipping and Commercial List to the 13th.—all inclusive.

Our papers state, that accounts from Liverpool and Glasgow are very favorable as to cottons; the sales have been very extensive at improving prices. At Manchester, the purchases of manufactured goods have also been unusually brisk, chiefly for immediate exportation. The demand for the home consumption of the country has been also considerable.

From the 3d to the 10th of January, 5000 barrels of apples were imported into Liverpool, and large quantities were daily expected to arrive.

Wheat and flour on the 12th Jan.

Dantzic Wheat,	72 a	102
Russian,	63 a	70
English,	55 a	98
Flour per sack of 2½ cwt.	75 a	80

Price of Stocks at London, on the 10th of January—

Bank Stock	291	1-2
3 per cent. Reduced	81	5-8
3 per cent. Consols	80	7-8
Do. for account	82	1-2
4 per cent. Consols	99	5-8
5 per cent. N. An.	105	3-4

The French funds are represented as constantly rising. "This progressive improvement," says the Falmouth paper, "is attributed to the numerous commissions to purchase our annuities received from London. In consequence of these commissions, 10,000,000 of 5 per cent. consols have, within these three days, been purchased by Rothchild, the banker, alone."

American Stocks in London, Jan. 10. New 6 per cents.—104 with dividend from 1st of January 1818.

An article from Warsaw says, that the Emperor Alexander is expected there towards the end of March. His imperial majesty will leave Moscow from the Crimea, in February. The much talked of meeting, between the continental sovereigns, is still affirmed with confidence, and it is said, will take place towards autumn.

The following handsome compliment to the U. S. ship Franklin, we copy from the Truro Gazette of the 16th of Jan:

"United States ship Franklin.—The late arrival of this formidable vessel in the waters of the country, which once possessed the supremacy over the land where she was built, has excited much attention and curiosity in our shipwrights and seamen, some of whom embraced the opportunity while she lay at Spithead, of inspecting her construction and equipment. Nothing, we have been credibly assured, can exceed the manner in which the Franklin is fitted out both below and above the gunwale. Her rigging is neat, and adroitly managed by one of the finest crews that ever navigated a ship. Her hull is a perfect model of shipbuilding and the interior combines every possible accommodation and comfort, with the most excellent arrangements for the deposit of stores, in which respect she is stated to be decidedly superior to any one of our ships of war. Her means of annoyance are on a similar scale of perfection. On all her decks she carries thirty-two pounders, a wise precaution, by which the possibility only of a single mistake in the quantum of powder and shot, is avoided. The guns, however, of the different decks, although of the same calibre, vary in length, and the uppermost tier, or those on the quarter deck and forecastle, are carronades, the whole being evidently planned for powerful and decisive close combat. Around the masts are hung sharpened axes, ready for cutting away in cases of emergency. Indeed the whole equipment is a chef d'œuvre, and manifests no small attention to the American navy, on the part both of its government and its seamen."

Corn Exchange—London, Jan 12.

Although our market was thinly supplied this morning, having had no arrivals since last Monday, owing to contrary winds, yet the wheat trade was exceedingly heavy, at a decline of 2s. per quarter; the major part of the samples from Essex being very rough, such kind remained undisposed of. Barley is also 2s per quarter cheaper, and met heavy sale, although the supply was unusually small.

English wheat 70s a 92; foreign wheat 66s a 105; Rye 38s a 44; barley 32s a 48; malt 60s a 70; fine flour 75s a 80 per cask.

London, Jan 7.

The Paris papers of Friday and Saturday last have arrived. In one of them there is an extract of a letter from a French officer, in the military service of Persia. Some parts of this letter, if it be authentic, and if the writer had means of knowing the truth of what he states, (two important qualifications,) are deserving of attentive consideration. It is there said, that a treaty which is to secure to Russia a free passage to India and the Persian Gulf, experiences no difficulty, because it will be mutually advantageous to both countries. It has long been the ambition of Russia to extend her influence and possessions in that quarter—but hitherto only an ineffectual ambition. Her recent embassy, however, to the Court of Persia, and the negociations which that embassy probably had in view, indicate a renewed ardor upon the subject.—It appears also, from the letter alluded to, that a cession of some provinces bordering on the Caspian, has been agitated; but this project, the force of public opinion, and the prejudices of the South, oppose, we are informed, insuperable obstacles. At the same time, it is an Armenian kingdom, will be re established with the common consent of Persia, Russia and Turkey. What truth there may be in any of these rumours we know not.

By an ordonnance of the 31st December, the king of France has created a preparatory military school for the purpose of instructing, at the public expense the sons of officers, without property, who are distinguished for their services; and at the expense of their families, such young men as their relations may wish to initiate into the studies and pursuits of the said school. The total number of pupils will be five hundred; of whom 300 are to be educated at the public charge. Those who are admitted at the expense of their relations will pay a thousand Francs per annum. When the pupils have completed their education at the preparatory school, they will be admitted into the special military school.—The number in this last school is three hundred. The pupils who undergo a satisfactory examination here, will receive commissions as sub-lieutenants in the army.

The Swiss government, in compliance with the requisition made by the ministers of France and Austria, have decided that no publication shall be permitted in that country containing offensive and improper sentiments. The Liberty of the Press will be sanctioned, as it ought—but that this Liberty may not be destroyed, its licentiousness will be restrained and punished.

Two vessels, laden with cannon-balls, are arrived at Gottenburgh—another with a similar cargo, and one with cannon, are expected, with which articles the Egyptain Corvette, the Africa, will soon return to Alexandria.

A Royal decree of the King of Spain has been issued, in the object of which all our readers will rejoice. By this Decree, Spanish subjects are forthwith prohibited from trading in slaves on the coast of Africa, north of the line, under a penalty of transportation for ten years to the Philippines and the confiscation of the ship and cargo. All slaves who may be bought on the said coasts, are to be declared free the moment they land in any Spanish port. With respect to the traffic in slaves, to the south of the line, that is likewise to cease after the 30th May, 1820, under similar penalties.

NOTICE.

☞ The inhabitants of Alexandria will take notice, that the subscribers have been appointed assessors for the present year, agreeably to the laws of the corporation.

"The said assessors shall, immediately after their appointment, proceed to value the houses and lots within the limits of the corporation, and to demand from the masters and mistresses of every family, lists of all male tytheables belonging to or residing in their respective families and also from every owner of taxable property, a list of such property. And if any master or mistress of a family, or any owner of taxable property, shall neglect or refuse to give in a list of all male tytheables belonging to or residing in his or her family, or of his or her taxable property, within five days after demand made thereof by any assessor, the person so offending shall forfeit and pay one hundred dollars. And if any person whatsoever, shall willfully omit or misrepresent in the list given in, any tytheable or any taxable property, or shall in any other manner conceal the same from the knowledge of the assessors, the person so offending shall forfeit and pay double the amount of the tax imposed on such tytheable or taxable property. Every merchant, shopkeeper, mechanic, or other person, having in his or her service or employment any clerk, journeyman, apprentice or assistant, shall render an account of the same in his or her list of tytheables, and shall be accountable for the capitation tax hereby imposed, in like manner and under the same penalties, as if such clerk, journeyman, apprentice, or assistant, were a member of his or her family."

ALSO,

STOMACHIC BITTERS.

These celebrated bitters are composed purely of vegetables of the most innocent, yet specific virtues, and are infinitely superior to any thing yet discovered, for restoring weak and decayed constitutions, destroying worms, cleansing and strengthening the stomach, encreasing the appetite, and by the frequent use of them, they are a certain preventive against those complaints so common in the spring and fall seasons, such as intermittent fevers, and agues, long Autumnal fevers, dysenteries, &c. They are also of infinite service to those in the seafaring line, who make long voyages at sea, and are exposed to unhealthy climates; a preventive against contagious disorders—they are also a very pleasant bitter and are particularly recommended for the use of Taverns and Public houses, as well as private families.

French Creek Boarding School.

The following is published for the information of Parents:

HAVING long believed that a School on a plan different from most others in many respects, would be beneficial to society, and apprehending that with all its cares, and the responsibility inseparable from such a concern, I could more cheerfully devote my time to the education of children than to any other business, I have concluded to establish a BOARDING SCHOOL for GIRLS.—With this view I have purchased the FRENCH CREEK FARM, four miles east of the yellow springs, on the Norristown and Philadelphia road, situated in Pikeland and Vincent townships, Chester county, twenty-seven miles from Philadelphia, combining many conveniencies for the support of such an institution; and having let the farm, etc. in a way calculated to supply the family with provisions, I propose to devote my attention, with the aid of suitable assistants, to the education of the children who may be placed under my care.

In selecting the pupils, it is not proposed to be governed entirely by their ages, nor to require that they shall all be members of the religious society of Friends; but as the school rules will be very few in number and very simple, it is my wish that none may be sent contrary to their own inclination, nor any one who would not be likely to be good examples to the other scholars, and treat them with kindness and affection.

The price for board and tuition will be two hundred Dollars per annum, one quarter always to be paid in advance—no restrictions respecting the kind of clothing are intended, nor respecting the frequency of the changes that parents may require; the washing will be charged at the ordinary price per dozen—children may be admitted for one quarter only, and such as are entered for a longer period, may nevertheless be removed at the expiration of any quarter.—The communication with Philadelphia will be frequent and easy by stage, and a house of entertainment kept by the farmer for the accommodation of persons having business at the school.

Reading, Writing, Arithmetic, English Grammar, Geography and the use of Maps and globes, will be taught, together with such other branches as the progress of the children and experience may render expedient. The school to open the first of the 5th month next. For further information apply to Edward Stabler, Alexandria, or to

I. Thompson, agent, joint proprietor," &c. and should any be offered for sale without said label on them the purchaser may be apprised that they are counterfeit.

James Kennedy & Son,

RESPECTFULLY inform the public that they have just received from LEE's MEDICINE STORE, No. 46, Maiden lane, New-York a fresh supply of the following valuable MEDICINES:

Hamilton's Worm-destroying Lozenges,

Which have within sixteen years past cured an immense number of persons of both sexes of every age and in every situation, of various dangerous complaints arising from WORMS, and from obstructions or foulness in the stomach and bowels.

This medicine bears no analogy whatever to others of similar titles so commonly complained of as operating with violence; on the contrary a particular excellence of this remedy is its being suited to every age and constitution. It contains nothing but what is perfectly innocent & is so mild in its operation that it cannot injure the most delicate pregnant lady or the tenderest infant of a week old should no worms exist in the body; but will without pain or griping cleanse the stomach and bowels of whatever is foul or offensive, and thereby prevent the production of worms and many fatal disorders. The lozenges are particularly efficacious in carrying off all gross humours and eruptions, feverish and bilious complaints, and are the safest and mildest purgative that can be used on any occasion.

Description of Worms, and the symptoms by which they are known.

Worms which infest the human body are chiefly of four kinds viz.—The Teres or large round worm; the Ascarides or small maw-worm; the Cucurbitine or short flat white worm; and lastly, the Tenia or tape-worm, so called from its resemblance to tape. This is often many yards long and is full of joints. It is most hurtful and most difficult to remove.

Among the symptoms attending worms are—disagreeable breath, especially in the morning; bad and corrupted gums; itching in the nose, and about the seat; convulsions, epileptic fits, and sometimes privation of speech; starting and grinding of the teeth in sleep; irregular appetite, sometimes loathing food and sometimes voracious; purging with slimy and fœtid stools; vomiting; large and hard belly; pains and sickness at the stomach; pains in the head and thighs and lowness of spirits; slow fever with small and irregular pulse; a dry cough; excessive thirst; sometimes pale and unhealthy countenance, and sometimes the face bloated and flushed.

Persons afflicted with any of the above symptoms should have immediate recourse to Hamilton's Worm Destroying Lozenges, which have been constantly attended with success in all complaints similar to those above described.

A dose of this medicine given occasionally during the warm season, will effectually prevent "the vomiting and purging of children"—a dreadful disorder, which annually destroys thousands of the infant part of our citizens. It is likewise the mildest and most certain remedy known, and has restored to health and strength a great number when in an advanced stage of this fatal complaint. Particular and plain instructions are given for every part of the necessary treatment in such cases.

Children generally take this medicine with eagerness; having a pleasing appearance, and an agreeable taste.

The Restorative Powder for the Teeth and Gums.

For the prevention and cure of BILIOUS AND MALIGNANT FEVERS is recommended

HAHN's ANTI-BILIOUS PILLS

THIS Medicine has been attended with a degree of success highly grateful to the inventor's feelings in several parts of the West Indies and in the Southern and Middle States, &c.

The testimony of a number of persons can be adduced, who have reason to believe that a timely use of this salutary remedy has, under Providence, preserved their lives when in the most alarming circumstances.

Facts of this conclusive nature speak more in favour of a medicine than columns of pompous eulogy founded on mere assertion.

It is not indeed presumptuously proposed as an infallible cure, but the inventor has every possible reason that can result from extensive experience for believing that a dose of these Pills taken once in every two weeks during the prevalence of our bilious fevers, will prove an infallible preventive; and further, that in the earlier stages of those diseases their use will very generally succeed in restoring health, and frequently in cases esteemed desperate and beyond the power of common remedies.

The operation of these pills is perfectly mild, so as to be used with safety by persons in every situation and of every age.

They are excellently adapted to carry off superfluous bile and prevent its morbid secretions—to restore and amend the appetite—to produce a free perspiration and thereby prevent colds which are often of fatal consequences. A dose never fails to remove a cold if taken on its first appearance: they are celebrated for removing habitual costiveness—sickness at the stomach and severe head-ache—and ought to be taken by all persons on a change of climate.

They have been found remarkably efficatious in preventing and curing disorders attendant on long voyages, and should be procured and carefully preserved for use by every seaman.

Hamilton's Elixir,

A sovereign remedy for colds, obstinate coughs, asthmas, sore throats, catarrhs, and approaching consumptions.—To parents who have children afflicted with the HOOPING COUGH, this discovery is of the first magnitude, as it affords immediate relief, checks the progress, and in a short time entirely removes the most cruel disorders to which children are liable. The Elixir is perfectly agreeable, and the dose so small that no difficulty arises in taking it.

Hamilton's Grand Restorative,

Is recommended as an invaluable medicine for the speedy relief and permanent cure of

Nervous Disorders	Violent cramps in the stomach and back
Consumptions
Lowness of spirits	Indigestion
Loss of appetite	Melancholy
Impurity of blood	Gout in the stomach
Hysteric affection	Pains in the limbs
Inward weaknesses and debility	Relaxations, etc.

Hamilton's Essence and Extract of Mustard.

A safe and effectual remedy for acute and chronic rheumatism, gout, rheumatic gout, palsy, lumbago, numbness, white swellings, chilblains, sprains, bruises, pain in the face and neck, etc. etc.

Lee's Ointment for the Itch.

Warranted an infallible remedy at one application, may be used with perfect safety by pregnant women, or on infants a week old, not containing a particle of mercury or any dangerous ingredient whatever, and not accompanied with that tormenting smart which attends the application of other remedies.

Hahn's true & genuine German Corn Plaister.

An infallible remedy for corns, speedily removing them root and branch, without giving any pain.

The Genuine Persian Lotion,

So celebrated among the fashionable throughout Europe, is an invaluable cosmetic, perfectly innocent and safe, free from corrosive and repellent minerals, the basis of other lotions, and of unparalleled efficacy in removing blemishes of the face and skin, freckles, pimples, inflamatory redness, scurfs, tetters, ringworms, sunburns, prickly heat, &c.

Hahn's genuine Eye Water,
